Bill of Lyme took 65 head of cattle and 85 sheep to the recent fair in New London | dark circle lasted but a short time, and at county, Conn., and carried home 64 premiums, amounting to $220.

A LIBERAL FIRE COMPANY .- The members of the Rough and Ready engine company of Westfield, Mass., divided the $200 prize money they won at Athol last week, among their 65 members, and afterward started a subscription, which reached $33, for Mr. George Smith, who would have gone with them to Athol as foreman but for the severe injury he received while working the machine, a few days before.

THOUGHT HIS FATHER WAS STAMPED. -The following transpired in Washington county N. Y., recently: A little boy who appeared to be very much excited ran across the room where his mother was busily engaged in sewing, exclaiming: "Ma! ma! are they going to sell my pa?" "No, no, my dear," said the mother "why do you think so?" "Because, ma, I saw a large government stamp on his back." "You poor I tile goosy," said his mother, "it's only a strengthening plaster."

A Heavy Blast —A steam blast at Plum-mer's granite quarry, Northbridge, the oth or day, threw a stone estimated to weigh 10 tens upon the railroad, breaking the rails like pipe stems. One piece, weighing over 300 pounds, was flung into the engine-bouse, 100 feet distant, striking a cylinder and lodg-ing within a foot of the engineer. believer in modern Spritualism. I have but have always been left in doubt, and no come. better off than when I commenced. I have attended the public scances of the Eddy Family, some years ago, and the pullie seance of William Eddy and his sister, in their exposures. Since their new lease of life, and during the past few months, while their manifestations have been growing more and more wonderful, and after listening to the stories of various persons who have witnessed them, I determined a making a visit to the family, and seeing for myself, but at the same time, I had little expectations of witnessing anything satis factory.

Accordingly, after attending the County Fair at Rutland on Thursday the 2d, Oct. in company with another gentleman from Danby, a Mr. Harrington, started for the residence of the Eddy's in Chittenden. distance from Rutland of six miles, where we arrived at about 7 o'clock in the even ing. On arriving we found that a party of eighty-four ladies and four gentleman-had just arrived from Syracuse N. Y., having come a distance of 200 miles, for the express purpose of visiting this family. We found Horatio and William, and their two sisters at home, having just arrived home from the Fair. Soon after our arrival, Mr. G. W. Hilliard of Rutland, and his fatherin-law Mr. Armstrong, of Dorset came. We were told at first that as the mediums were tired, and not feeling well, there would be no circle held there that evening. But finally after considerable coaxing, and in consideration of some having come far, it was decided to hold one.

Mr. Armstrong, together with myself and others made an examination of the various departments of the house, previous to hold-ing the circle, to see if we could discover any secret passages, or trap doors, which some have claimed might be there, ever going down cellar, among the potato and apple bins, but suffice it to say, nothing which would lead to a detection of fraud was discovered. The dark circle, as it is called, and which by the way we were in formed, is to be discontinued, came first, at the request of several present. Horatio who sits for this circle, was thoroughly tied, and placed in a chair beside a table, con taining a violin, guitar, tamborine, bells, and various other musical instruments. At the request of some the doors leading into the circle room were sealed, by pasting paper neross them. The circle was the formed, consisting of 16 persons, by joining hands. The light was then extinguished, and immediately the musical instruments began to play, sometimes no loss than five or six different instruments could be distinguished playing at once. Upon lighting the lamp, the medium was found tied. The time than it takes to tell it, the medium's coat was taken off, and upon lighting the lamp, was found thrown over the head of one of the gentlemen from Syracuse. At another time a glass of water was placed upon a light stand, and the light extinguish ed, and while the instruments were playing, was turned bottom side upward, on the stand and not a drop of water spilled. This is a feat which I venture to say is impossible to be performed with human hands, for a gentleman, in turning it back, spilled half of it out. A solid iron ring, some 8 inches in diameter, was placed upon one arm of the medium, and taken off, within three feet of the light, his hands remaining

A duel was fought by two spirits, claiming to be those of George Dix and Robert Kid, the pirate. The swords could be heard distinctly clashing and soon a heavy body feel, jaring the house, and the groans and voices heard; and this not more than three feet from where we sat. An old gentleman present by the name of Ralph, who had WIII be paid for the come a great many miles to communicate with the spirit of his daughter, sat in the

The the conclusion, the cord which bound the mediums arms was untied, by some power, and came whizzing through the room, a distance of some fifteen feet, and thrown around the neck of Mr. Hilliard.

> Next was held the light circle or for ma terialization, for which William Eddy sat. He was tied and placed in the little dark bedroom, spoken of, a room some 6 by 12 feet, and a blanket tacked up to the door, while the audience sat in the circle room which was lighted. In order to preserve harmony in the circles, singing was engaged in and in which all joined. Soon after the curtain was pushed back and the spirit of an Indian woman made her appearance. This is the spirit of Honto as she is called, which frequently presents itself at these seances. and was recognized by those present. Thi spirit as could be plainly seen, was dressed as an Indian woman. The next spirit was purported to be that of William White, late editor of the Banner of Light who we are informed often presents himself to these TWENTY-FIVE CENT. COUNTER circles. He was dressed in a nice suit of broadcloth, with white vest, and his features could be plainly seen. The next was the spirit of a young lady dressed in white recognized by her friends who were present. And then the spirit of a little child, which no one present recognized. No less than

Now then Mr. Editor, as we have wearied will conclude by saying, that we were well in anticipation of the time when he shall pleased with what we saw, and greatly astonished. One thing of which we satisfied ourself by this visit is that these manifesta a conspicuous place in the cemetery. As it has been said and trothoully that if it is slight of hand, it is of the first-class, and deserve special notice. If it is a humbug, why cannot some one else do the same. One of the greatest arguments in favor of the gennineness of the manifestations is the fact that it depends on the condition of the medicon whether much is shown or not. If it Is a humbar, the same could be shown at any time. It oes not seem to be money they are ofter. is they leave it optional for visitors to pay-If it is slight of hand their fortune is made.
